3 week programme

Hertford College was founded in 1282 – it is one of the oldest of Oxford University’s 38 colleges. Located in the centre of historic Oxford, our beautiful college is famous for the Bridge of Sighs, which is one of the most wonderful sights of the city. This is an ideal setting for students wishing to improve their language skills and knowledge of Britain and British culture.

Over the past ten years, we have been providing high quality English Language programmes for a wide variety of international students. We offer a prestigious and stimulating learning environment, the highest standards of programme design and organisation, and a dedicated and professional team who ensure your stay with us is fulfilling and enjoyable.

Our teachers and lecturers are all well-qualified and have years of experience teaching students from all over the world. Your level will be assessed on arrival, and you will be carefully monitored throughout the programme so that you can be sure of making the maximum possible progress.

The following information will help you during your stay here. We are sure that you will enjoy your time here in Oxford.

Welcome to Oxford!
